Volume 33 | July–September 2014

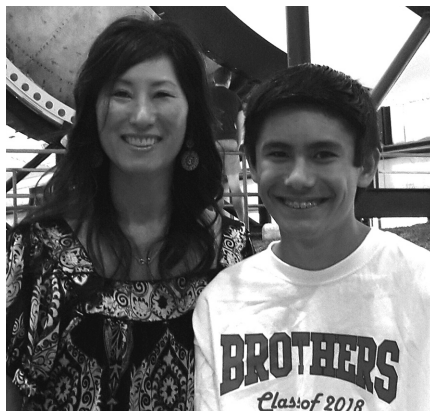

When I was a young girl, I would often hear my parent's friends say, "Wow, Stephanie is 5 already...or she's in high school... or she graduated from college! How time flies... or they grow up so fast!" Now I hear myself telling this to my friends and family... everyday! Miles turned 9 in June and take a look at who made it on the cover of our newsletter in this edition! My (older) cousin Kelley and her eldest son Jackson who will start as a freshman at Christian Brothers. Way to go Jackson! We are so proud of him! I still remember when Kelley was pregnant with Jackson 14 years ago and I did a TV news story on their family. You see, the year 2000 was very good luck in many Asian cultures who go by the lunar calendar, it was the start of y2k. It was also the Year of the Dragon and if you were pregnant with a boy, it was double happiness! As you can see, Kelley hit the jackpot! She now with three beautiful boys and a loving husband... her luck continues!

As for this edition of our newsletter... it's packed this summer with guest artists, including watercolor artist and colored pencil expert Peggy Jo Ackley who is also the creator of Pink Ink stamps. Please welcome her in August, you won't be disappointed, and your friends will probably call you Mrs. Monet or Mrs. Michaelangelo!

In September, please welcome back Julie Ebersole. She comes twice a year and she's always a sell out. Really. Julie hails from Washington State and has been teaching classes at the Paper Garden for 7 years, and each and everytime she comes she designs one of the most popular cards at the Paper Garden. Sign up early because she has a cap of 20 students!

Big news in September... the Paper Garden turns 8! Yes, hopefully the infinity sign will be a good luck charm for all of us this 2014! Celebrate with us on September 6th! We'll have a big sale, big give aways and a big party! Go BIG or GO HOME!

Also, July means... Christmas in July... yep, our favorite stamp companies and paper companies release their holiday lines in July. That means we will start our Christmas in July cardmaking classes in this edition of our newsletter! Say what!!!
