Alive and Kicking for Five Decades!

If you know me, it's no secret... I'm an open book and I'm 50! I turned a half of a century on Veteran's Day (November 11th)! I spent the weekend with my family and friends in Carmel and my crazy rich Asian friend gifted me her home in Carmel for the weekend, what can I say..I had a blast... and lived like the other side lives! I also had a wonderful Sunday brunch at the Mission Inn, but no sightings of Clint Eastwood. Then to top it off... my bffs and cousins and my husband, aunt and mother surprised me a wonderful dinner party at Lemon Grass. Gee'z... feel the love. Thank you also for the beautiful handmade cards from my wonderful customers... and the lovely dinners and lunches from friends — turning 50 obviously means a milestone because normally my birthdays are pretty low key... this means... yes... I'm old! Thank you again for a birthday celebration to remember. I'm still overwhelmed by the love and generosity.

It's 2019! Year of the Boar — if you are born in this year! Chinese New Year officially begins February 5th, some characteristics are compassionate, generous, and never betrays friends. In fact, boars take good care friends. They are romantic and optimistic, and don't like to compete with others. They also have a very big appetite and are "FOODIES." If you are the year of the Pig/Boar consider yourself lucky in 2019.

Also, look a great class in March with Julie Ebersole. She will teach, March 1–3 and we promise you will love her cards and style!

***A little tid bit about me, when I was a reporter in Kansas City, I had a Maltese named Sammy, I threw him a dog party at my apartment clubhouse on the Plaza. My apartment was very Hoity Toity, I guess I was used to paying California prices because back then $700.00 for a one bedroom was really expensive for KC, Missouri. Little did I know, I was just thinking of the pretty view I had and eating more top ramen. My neighbors were Kansas City Chiefs football players Keith Cash and Derrick Thomas (who tragically died in a car accident) and they brought their dogs to the party. It ended up being an autograph party because all of my friends wanted pix and autographs with the football players! Hahaha, they were so cool about it.
