Blooming news...

One of my favorite times of the year is Spring. I look forward to the longer days, the light breeze and seeing the sun from my little boutique (bubble, as I call it). Come inside our store and see that spring has sprung! We have beautiful new floral stamps and have you seen our exclusive cherry blossom and asian coin cardstocks? These are printed in happy pastel colors 8.5x11 prints on one side and a natural white on the other side... collect them all.

We have also filled our store with new gifts and goodies sure to cheer anyone up, I especially love the little art boxes (from finger painting to balloon racing) imported from the United Kingdom! Please be sure to become a fan of the Paper Garden Boutique on facebook and visit our blog, we will have surprise make and takes. Also in this newsletter, look for our guest designer Jean Okimoto's visit from Seattle... she's one of the lead designers with Memory Box, her classes will be a sure hit! Thank you for making the Paper Garden blossom.. once again!
