Where creativity blossoms!

Spring Newsletter | Volume 69 | July / August / September 2023

Oh, the places you will go...

It's graduation season and that means my one and only child Miles is part of the "Pomp and Circumstance March" for the 2023 commencement ceremony. Ever since October 2022, Miles has been spending a lot of time working on college applications and it all came down to two private Universities, NYU and Boston College. It didn't take long for Miles to decide that his number two dream school became a reality and Boston College it is. Our Golden Eagle will soar right into the Carroll

School of Management majoring in Finance. Thank you so much for all of your good wishes and beautiful cards and gifts. As a very proud mom, I am so grateful to the friends and family that have supported Miles since he was a toddler. Look at him now, a college student! Many people ask me as a mother of just one child, will you be ok? Will you cry? What will you do now? Here's my answer, I won't need a plane ticket to get home from Boston, my tears will be enough to swim my way back since I will be crying enough to fill the ocean. We also plan two more trips before October!

Of course, in my future newsletter, I will keep you updated on Miles whereabouts in Boston. What a wonderful and exciting time for all of the 2023 graduates! Congratulations to all. Remember your investment in college will always pay the best interest!

On another note, Happy 17th Birthday Paper Garden! Please join us for fun festivities beginning on Friday, September 1st thru Monday, September 4th. We will have treats, make and takes and the entire store is 20% off... what a fun time!

We hope to see you and thank you all for the wonderful ride of 17 splendid years! We appreciate you!
